STATE OF WISCONSIN

SUMMER AFFIRMATIVE ACTION INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

WHAT IS SAAIP?

The Summer Affirmative Action Internship Program (SAAIP) is one of many internship programs offered by the State of Wisconsin. The Division of Personnel Management administers the SAAIP and provides racial/ethnic minority student, female students, students with disabilities, and veteran students an opportunity to work in a professional work environment within Wisconsin state government. SAAIP provides students with valuable work experience and training in various branches of state government,

Since the inception of the program in 1974, has placed over 3,100 students in internship positions in more than 30 state agencies and university campuses.

SAAIP is a paid internship.

WHAT IS THE PROCEDURE?

- Complete the SAAIP application on Wisc.Jobs
- Attach your resume and your Student Status Verification form completed by your school's advisor or Registrar's Office. The application process is considered incomplete and your application will be ineligible without these two documents.
- Applications will be reviewed for eligibility and to verify that the required information is completed.
- In early March, the SAAIP Coordinator will begin referring eligible candidates to participating agencies.
- Participating agencies will contact candidates for interviews in the following weeks.

WHERE WOULD I WORK?

Most of the intern positions are in the Madison area. There are a limited number of internships in Milwaukee, Green Bay, and other outlying areas across the state.

SAAIP SEMINAR

SAAIP interns and supervisors are invited to attend the Employment Seminar in June. The Employment Seminar provides a forum for interns to gain a better and perspective on what to expect in state employment, as well as valuable information that will enhance their career goals.
